

By the numbers

How we're keeping our Promise.

Cook Children's culture encompasses the way we connect, collaborate and elevate.

Our Las Vegas Trail Neighborhood Health Center brings leading health care organizations, dedicated partners and the vibrant people of Fort Worth together to offer accessible, comprehensive care for kids, teens, adults and families.

Thank you to our valued partners for contributing their diverse perspectives, expertise and strengths in support of children and families across the Las Vegas Trail community.

JPS Health Network
Fort Worth, Texas

Learn more.

First year in review

2025-2026

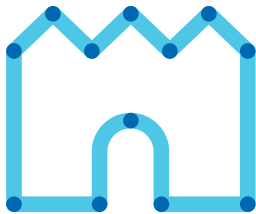

A medical home for the entire family

11,324 Cook Children's primary care and behavioral health visits

20% new patients
7% newborns
40% Cook Children's Health Plan
903 on-site lab services processed by Quest Diagnostics

10,139 JPS Health Network patient visits

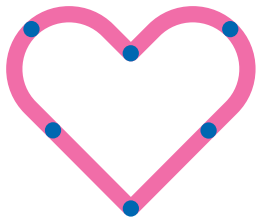

52% Primary Care
25% Obstetrics and Gynecology
23% Behavioral Health

Family engagement and education

929 Community education events, meetings, tours and cooking classes

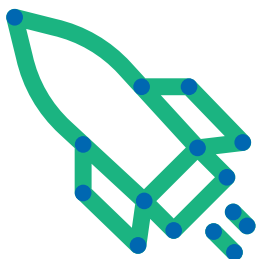

2,003 Social services, community and behavioral health referrals provided by Cook Children's Center for Community Health, Cook Children's Neighborhood Health Center family advocates and social workers, as well as Cook Children's Health Plan community health workers

Food security

24,158 WestAid food pantry shopping trips and lunches provided to unhoused visitors

$1,777,865 Value of goods distributed

Access to job skills

25 Enrolled in workforce development programs led by Cook Children's, JPS Health Network, Tarrant County College and Workforce Solutions

2 12-week cohorts have been completed with a third projected for the fall